EDITORIAL COUPLE FILM / PRE-WEDDING SHOOT

The Editorial Couple Film offers a space to capture who you are together — outside the structure of the wedding day. It's personal, flexible, and designed around your energy as a couple.

Whether it's set in a place that means something to you, styled like a scene from a favorite film, or simply filmed during a laid-back moment with close friends, this shoot adds depth and intention to your final film by showing the love that led to the wedding day. It's not about posing, it's about presence. Real connection, beautifully documented.

The resulting film can be incorporated into your wedding film or delivered as its own standalone piece.
